

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Grace, mercy and peace to you from God Our Father and Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

*Jesus said to them again "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me even so I am sending you."
~ John 20:21*

Jesus speaks these words to the disciples on the evening of Easter day. This is the commissioning of the disciples to be apostles. Ones sent by the authority of Jesus to tell the world what Jesus has done for all. As we read these words, we need to realize Jesus is speaking these words to us as well. Jesus is saying to us "I am sending you."

How does that make us feel? Do we feel that Jesus is calling us to action? If not, why not? What holds us back? How do we read or hear these words and not believe Jesus wants us to live them? We probably hear these words and more than likely think about them and what they meant to the disciples gathered in the room, assuming that the words were meant only for them. But then we probably don't give these words any further thought until Easter comes again.

When Isaiah was asked by God "Whom shall I send?" Isaiah answered "Send me, send me!" When Moses was told he was going to tell Pharaoh, "Let my people go!" Moses came up with questions and excuses hoping God would choose someone else. Jesus tells the ten disciples gathered together "I am sending you."

We don't see them rush out the door after Jesus leaves and shout to the mountaintops "He is risen."

As a matter of fact the one person we know they did tell, Thomas a fellow disciple, does not believe them. However, Jesus does tell them to wait until he sends the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit, as we know, will come on Pentecost.

We have no reason to wait. The Lord has already poured out the Holy Spirit among his people. So by Jesus's authority, the same authority by which pastors absolve people of their sins, every one of us has been sent.

How does this make us feel? God has entrusted to us his greatest gift and sent us to deliver it to each other and to all those who don't know there is a gift waiting for them.

Moses didn't know God's name, didn't think people would believe him, didn't think he was a good enough speaker, and so thought God should send someone else. We can read all about it in Exodus 3 & 4. Yet God was able to accomplish such great things through him. The one thing God would not do is choose someone else. Moses would remain His chosen instrument.

I have some disturbing news for you. It's the same in our case. God won't choose someone else. Jesus has sent us even as the Father sent him, Jesus, the missionary to this sinful world. I ask how does this make us feel because he doesn't want us to just think about it. He wants us to do it and that means many of us will be dealing with emotions, questions, and doubts. But Jesus is with us. He will be with us in all of those encounters and conversations.

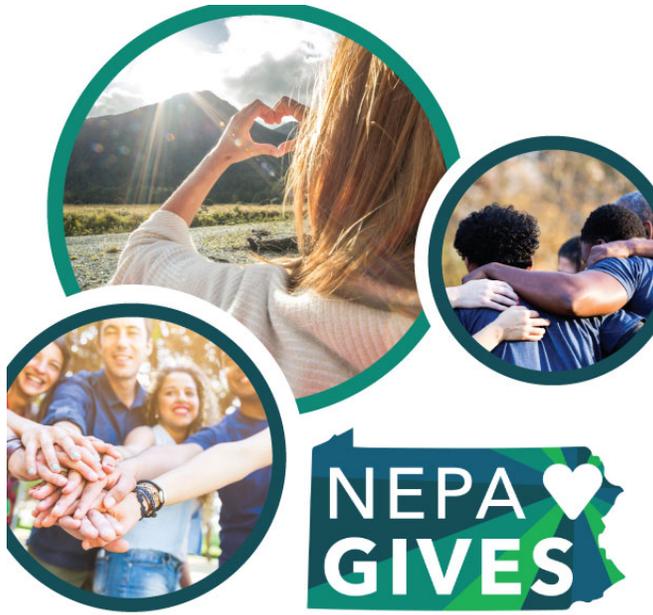

May God send his Holy Spirit to strengthen us in our faith, that as we celebrate Pentecost we also can celebrate that we have been sent. Amen.

SDG,

Pastor

+ HYMN OF THE MONTH: On Christ's Ascension I Now Build #492

The author of this hymn, Joshua Wegelin, was born in Augsburg in 1604. In 1629, all the Evangelical churches were closed by Emperor Ferdinand III. Joshua served as a pastor, inspector, and later became a Doctor of Theology. He wrote twenty hymns, known for their simplicity.

Wegelin's hymn focuses us on Christ's ascension into heaven and the hope we have in the certainty of one day joining our Lord where He has gone before us. He reminds us that we are members of the body and where Christ is, we shall be there also, and the perfect trust we can put in Him.

"Since Christ's return to claim His throne
Great gifts for me obtaining
My heart shall rest in Him alone"

We know that our Lord prepares for us a place in heaven. With Wegelin, we to look forward to the day when we will join Christ in our eternal home.

Happy 175th Birthday LCMS!

Emperor Fredrick Wilhelm III of Prussia declared that for the 300th anniversary of the nailing of the 95 theses that all of the churches of Prussia had to unite. This meant a compromising of all of the churches beliefs so that they would be uniform. Rather than give up the biblical doctrines of the church, in some cases entire communities out of fear of the results, and because of the opportunities offered by the United States, decided to emigrate to America. In November of 1838, a group of over 500 Lutherans from Saxony set sail for the United States.

While in transit they named Martin Stephan to be bishop. They would eventually settle in Perry County, Missouri. Stephan would be removed from office after it was learned he was having intimate relations with several of the women of the group. After a year and a half of spiritual and physical struggling a new leader arose. C.F.W. Walther would emerge as the new leader.

After 175 years, the LCMS has over six thousand congregations, seven universities, 2 seminaries, and over two million members. Radio station KFUE is the oldest religion radio station in the nation and reaches 90 different countries. We are in a full doctrinal relationship with 35 other confessional Lutheran churches around the world. As a church body we work with over 300 recognized service organizations. The LCMS, a founding partner of Lutheran Services in America, serves one in every fifty Americans.
